way, it was the enstom to strip it of its clothes, and leave it all night on the marbite star of the church; if the babe survived it was a proof that it had not been struck by the Nercide, and graceally receivered its proper health. But the infidel authorities have put a stop to this. May the Noreida strike them and their false prophet?

Mrs. Fanday was evidently an implicit believer in mystic phenomens, so I questioned her further about charms and leal.

many dressmakers, each one having her own ideas, that the result is a sort of salmage di its a sort of salmage di its void is least to tale a fairy sent us. Fresh frem the dear Muod Juventus, Presh frem the dear Muod Juve

The state of the s the force and the first the work of the first the force and the first the fi Sandary respiration, carrying a tray, of the other to grant, a safe committed for a safe of shield was to bring to this side of chases of water. We took a tecoposolial the channel the latest frivolities of the of the sweetness, drauk a little water. French court," With later years have and this need was over. They are great come more favorable conditions for the and this meal was over. They are great come more favorable conditions for the lovers of tweet things in these parts. They make them of cose leaves, grange and other lands, and the fashion and length themselves, made of the fashion the favorable country. There are modified the favorable country, made of length to larger rates, fordefalses, modistes of Toulouse, Faith.

1 with the problem of the control with the problem of the Love rules everything that is; Love doth change hear's in a kiss; Love seeks devious ways of bilss; L ve than boney sweeter, Love than gail more bitter. Bitnd Love hash no modesties, Love is inkewarm, hot and cold; Love is imid, over-toold; Loysi, treacherous; manifold.

Present time is 0t for play; Let Love find his mate to-day; Hark, the birds, how sweet their is Love rules young men wholly; Live lures maidean solely; Woe to sid foit said are they! Sweetest woman ever seen, Fairest, dearest, is my queen; Aud, alas, my chiefust teen!

Let au old man, chill and drear, Never come thy busons near; Oft he sleeps with sorry cheer, Too cold to delight thee; Naught could less livite thee. Youth with youth must mate, my dear. Bless the union i desire; Naught I know, and naught require. Setter than to be thy squire.

Love files all the world around:
Love in wanton wi'es is wound:
Therefore youth and maid are bound in Love's fetter's duly,
who is lover yet hath found!
All the night in grief and smart
She must languish, wear her hear!
Bitter is that woman's part,

Love is simple, Love is siy;
Love is paie, of ruddy dye;
Love is all things, low and high;
Love is serviceable,
Constant and unstable;
Love obeys art's empery,
in this closed room Love takes flight;
In the silence of the night;
Love made captive, conquered quite,
em the Medievel Latin by John Addin Symends.

Three saloon-keepers in Chicago were found guilty of selling to minors, and the following is the address of the judge who sentenced them:

By the law, you may sell to men and women if they want it. You have given bond and you are licensed to sell to them; with an accuracy and alsority as surprise and amustic and an and some and the latest accuracy and alsority as surprise as its taction and amustic selling as its taction and amustic selling as its taction are unions and amustic selling as its taction are unions.

of stimuticing, duthic leasted all is throughout the country. Three serves most believe that the pulled the country is the serves of the pulled the country of the country the new but of the old world, from Portugal, France and England, recently in part from the Rio de Janeire; the porcelaist tiles with which the house-fronts are faced, come not from the mod of the Amazon but from that of the rivers of Portugal. So, the statuary, that adorns the house-front and France tops, the gate posts, and the garden-plats, is imported from Portugal and France. The ships in the harbor and the bonds, or street cars, in the streets, come not from the great equatorial forest and the iron mountains of Brazil, but from the work shops of England and the United Statesthe salministered upon as though for a few monountains of Brazil, but from the work shops of England and the United Statesthe salministered upon as though for a few monountains of Switzer land. The coal, from which the gas is manufactured that is consumed in the attreets of the city with a prodigality becoming the equatortal belt, comes from England. The oil of that burns in the streets of the city with a prodigality becoming the equatortal belt, comes from England. The oil of that burns in the streets of the city with a prodigality becoming the equatortal belt, comes from England. The oil of that burns in the streets of the city with a prodigality becoming the equatortal belt, comes from England. The oil of that burns in the streets of the city with a prodigality becoming the equatortal belt, comes from England. The oil of that burns in the streets of the city with a prodigality becoming the equatortal belt, comes from England. The oil of that burns in the streets of the city with a prodigality becoming the equatortal belt, comes from England. The oil of that burns in the streets of the city with a prodigality becoming the equatorial of the complex of the city of the com notiseheld and attracts the myriad of moths, mosquitoes, and other midnight bichos of the valley of the Amazon, comes from the valley of the Allegheny in the United States. The codfish from the waters of Norway and Newfoundland rivals the pirarucu, or red fish and all the other fish of the New World Mediterranean, in feeding the people. So the flour from the wheat of the United States, Austria, and Russia rivals the farinha de mandioca the new but of the old world, from Por- to him easerly and briefly told him the acid from the pocket formed by the rup- corn field with his cultivator, before he and tendency to collapse attendant upon such cases in old age. There was ten years life in him, properly managed, though at the moment he was very low, and required most careful handling from both nurse and physician. He was half committee when I first saw kinn, both.

a good joke; but the chief assured him truders, the fortress would be in a state of chacs, similar to that in which I have seen Fort Sumter after its bombardment as commanded to completely overwhelmed, gasped out a prayer for delay; "Why am I to be deprived of my liberty?" "Who is my liberty?" "Who is dector, knocking the ashes from his cigar.

"And, with such incidents occurring more or less constantly, doctors take rather cynical views of human nature. Cases of heroic devotion come they sent to Yobutsk and from there to make, poor creature, filled with sweet thy and expectation, hoping from lay at Irkutsk that he would be perlay at Irkutsk that he would be perlay to dector, knocking the ashes from his cigar.

I dector, knocking the ashes from his cigar.

"And, with such incidents occurring more the subsequent work of tending a crop will be expensive and annoying. Good ploughing is of the very highest importance in the preparation of a culti-type of the crop. It may be too late in the subsequent work of tillage, and the care of the crop. It may be too late in the assument of the corp. It may be too late in the most late. Picture her anguish when the care of these of the crop. It may be too late in the season now to apply the principles we have laid down, so far as the ploughing is concerned, but it is not too late to observe the difference between the cost of tending a crop where the previous preparation.

len I first saw him; but with second use of stimulants his med, and he was enabled to y. As the young man was Engineer Melville's new book on Polari saw him; but with Engineer Melville's new book on Polari saw Small little joineous use of stimulants his an interest in was Banil, who lived apart as a retreated, and he was enabled to an interest in was Banil, who lived apart was a little family of the polari same than the others and familied the didnes who had gone being from a catract. Dr. Bull had been very kind in his attentions to Danenhower and Leach. His life held more of sorrow in it than that of most mea. He had been a practicup phismal properties and the held more of sorrow in it than that of most mea. He had been a practicular phismal properties and the held more of sorrow in the held mo or being a murderer—tor I product of our lands returned to us in the state of the s coss. I got it, though, to the than to grow a pound of wheat or corn like a pipe. Don't strike the rocks too than to grow a pound of weed seeds, and hard : you might break 'em." than to grow a pound of weed seeds, and it costs no more to keep a field clear of mation was averted by prompt any part. The patient was a man, subject to such violent man, subject to such violent manifest injections of more takes hold of the work at the right man, subject to such violent to the total work on the farm saves labor rather than wastes it, just as good work in any other industry proves economical in the long run.

NUMBER 2

Arkansaw Traveller

Mr. Jalman was arrested for carrying a pistol. In his defence before a justice of the peace, he said :

e peace, he said :
"Your honor, this is a mistake,"
"Evidently," the judge replied, "Every evil course, when overtaken, is a

our Fallen tatues

Day by day the statues crumble. That we raised unto the great, With resonn-ling crash they tumb Gone is all their former state. We had believed them firm and stead;

Unsuspecting gazed we on them.
Frought noting their great height,

the season shone upon them.
From our eyes, a loving light. Dearest was it of our picasures
To array them, in our profe,
With the richest of soul's treasures,
Think in there was naught to hide

Rut one well-remembered morning, As we lingered in the hall. Wholly without sign, or warning. Came a subden, crashing fall. The e in fragments by our obstance. One among the stately crowd. At now many hopes then perished! In our grief we solved about.

Then another statue followed,
And another followed on,
Bitter taste of grief we swallowed
As we looked those wrecks upon

Day by day the statues crambled, to be is all their former state. We are, too, both crushed and humbled. Fallen are our loved and great. L. F. S. B.